Trade and Financial Linkages in the Era of Geopolitical Fragmentation

CEBRA ITM/IFM joint Program Meeting hosted by the Central Bank of the UAE, the Emirates Institute of Finance, and NYU Abu Dhabi

Abu Dhabi, November 20-21, 2023

The sixth annual meeting of CEBRA's International Trade and Macroeconomic program will be joint with the fifth annual meeting of CEBRA's International Finance and Macroeconomics program. The event will be co-hosted by the Central Bank of the UAE, the Emirates Institute of Finance, and New York University Abu Dhabi.

The keynote will be delivered by H el ene Rey (London Business School). The conference will feature a policy panel with the participation of Pierre-Olivier Gourinchas (Chief Economist, IMF), Philip Lane (Chief Economist, ECB) and Andres Velasco (Dean of LSE).

We invite submissions of original research papers on Trade and Financial Linkages in the Era of Geopolitical Fragmentation. Addressing the following questions are of particular interest:

- o Global inflation and emerging markets : is global recession around the corner?
- o Future of banking crises and debt crises
- o Supply chain disruptions and retrenchment
- o Globalization and supply chains in the era of industrial policy
- o Geography and global value chains
- o Insulation from US Monetary policy spillovers
- o Climate risk and financial stability
